Rules of The Queen's Club

Amended the 22nd day of May 2008

- (a) The Members of The Queen's Club are together an unincorporated association known as The Queen's Club which is referred to in these Rules as "The Queen's Club" or "the Club". The Club is a members' club.
- (b) The Queen's Club Limited ("QCL") is a wholly owned subsidiary of Queen's Club Holdings Limited ("QCHL"). QCL owns directly or indirectly all the assets utilised by the Club and employs the staff who serve the Club. The relationship between the Club, QCL, QCHL and each of the Members of the Club is governed by these Rules which take effect as a contract between them.
- (c) The majority of the Members of the Club are also holders of Redeemable Shares in QCHL. There are two other shareholders of ordinary shares in QCHL, namely the All England Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club and the Trustees, who hold shares in QCL through QC Trustees Limited ("QCT"). The All England Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club also has a special share giving it certain pre-emptive rights on a disposal and relating to the Tournament. The Trustees hold their shares on trust for the Members of the Club.
- (d) These Rules together with the Memorandum and Articles of Association of QCHL also govern the relationship between the holders of the Redeemable Shares in their capacity as shareholders.
- (e) In the case of any discrepancy between these Rules and the Memoranda and Articles of Association of QCL, QCHL or QCT, these Rules shall prevail so far as this is not prohibited by any applicable legislation in force from time to time.

- 1.3 The headings used in these Rules are inserted for convenience only and shall not affect their construction or interpretation.
- 1.4 The Schedules form part of this agreement.
- 1.5 A copy of these Rules shall be made available in the Club reception and via the Club website.
- 1.6 These Rules shall come into effect on the 1st day of October 2008 in substitution for all previous rules.
- 1.7 Where the words “Existing Member(s)” appear in these Rules it shall be construed as a reference to Founder Members.
- 1.8 Where in these Rules there is a reference to Queen’s Club premises it shall be construed where the context permits as a reference to Club Premises.

2. Legal Structure of the Club and Obligations of QCL to Members

- 2.1 The Trustees hold on behalf of the Members under the terms of the Deed of Trust all the issued ordinary shares in QCT .
- 2.2 QCT holds 1,750 ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of QCHL all of which are fully paid. The All England Lawn Tennis Ground PLC holds 45 ordinary shares of £1 each in the capital of QCHL all of which are fully paid. Each Shareholder Member is the holder of one redeemable share of £1 each in the capital of QCHL (a “Redeemable Share”). The terms including those for purchase and redemption of the Redeemable Shares are set out in the Articles of Association of QCHL. The Redeemable Shares and Ordinary Shares in QCHL each carry one vote.
- 2.3 QCL is the wholly owned subsidiary of QCHL and QC Ground is the wholly owned subsidiary of QCL.
- 2.4 The Queen’s Club premises are situated at Palliser Road, West Kensington, London W14 9EQ and are the property of QC Ground by virtue of a lease dated 11 December 2006 entered into by QCL and QC Ground and leases dated in May 2007 between QC Ground and LTA Holdings Limited and/or its subsidiaries.
- 2.5 No Member shall obtain any rights or interest in the property of QCL other than as provided for in these Rules and Members shall take all such steps as may be necessary to ensure compliance by themselves and others with these Rules both as Members individually and as part of the unincorporated association, The Queen’s Club.
- 2.6 QCL will provide the Members with facilities for lawn tennis, real tennis, rackets, squash rackets, table tennis, a gymnasium, bridge, snooker and billiards and such other facilities as the Board may decide are in keeping with the aforementioned activities in a sociable environment with other advantages and facilities at the Club Premises from time to time.
- 2.7 Other than Existing Members, no person over the age of 27 on the 1st day of October in any year shall be or remain a Member until such time as he shall hold one Redeemable Share in QCHL. In the case of a person who turns 28 while a Member unless that person holds or acquires a Redeemable Share before the 1st day of October next following his 28th birthday he shall cease to be a Member. Any Shareholder Member shall automatically cease to be a Member on ceasing to hold a Redeemable Share.
- 2.8 Other than as provided herein or in the Bye-Laws, the Members of the Club are under no financial liability by reason of their membership of the Club save the annual membership fee which shall be determined as hereinafter set out.
- 2.9 The Memorandum and Articles of Association of QCL form part of these Rules. No dividend shall be paid to the Shareholders of QCL or QCHL (other than pursuant to the provisions for the redemption of the Redeemable Shares).
- 2.10 All Members are bound to these Rules as a contract. QCL and QCHL have agreed to be bound by these Rules as a contract. The Trustees have the obligations set out in the Deed of Trust and are bound to these Rules insofar as these Rules do not conflict with their duties under that deed.

3. Constitution of the Board of Directors of each of QCL and QCHL and the Trustees

- 3.1.1 Subject to the Transitional Arrangements set out in Schedule 1(a) the Boards of Directors of QCL and QCHL shall each consist of 12 members, all of whom shall be elected as set out in Schedule 3(a) hereto by the Members.
- 3.1.2 Subject to the Transitional Arrangements set out in Schedule 1(b) and the Trust Deed the Trustees shall be four in number all of whom shall be elected as set out in Schedule 3(b) by the Members.
- 3.2 All the Directors of each of QCL and QCHL and all the Trustees must be Members.
- 3.3.1 Each Member Director shall (subject to the Transitional Arrangements, the Articles of Association of QCL or, as the case may be, of QCHL) serve for a period of three years commencing on the first meeting of Directors following the AGM at which he is elected.
- 3.3.2 No Director may be a Trustee and vice versa, save that for the period to the Annual General Meeting in 2009 not more than two Directors may also serve as Trustees and for the period from the Annual General Meeting in 2009 to the Annual General Meeting in 2010 one Director may also be a Trustee.
- 3.3.3 In the event of a vacancy on the Board, the Board may appoint any Member of the Club to fill the vacancy. The Director so appointed shall stand down at the next Annual General Meeting of the Club but his service during any period when he was not elected shall not count for the purposes of clause 3.3.4.
- 3.3.4 No Member shall serve more than two consecutive terms of three years each as a Member Director.
- 3.4.1 Without prejudice to their rights under the relevant Articles of Association, the Directors of QCL or, as the case may be, QCHL shall separately elect the Chairman of the Board of Directors of each of QCL and QCHL in each year at the first meeting of Directors following the Annual General Meeting of the Club.
- 3.4.2 The Chairman of the Board of QCL shall be the Chairman of The Queen's Club. For the avoidance of doubt the Chairman of the Board of QCL and the Chairman of the Board of QCHL need not be the same one person.
- 3.4.3 No Member Director shall serve more than three years as Chairman of either QCL or QCHL.
- 3.5.1 Without prejudice to the terms of the Trust Deed the Trustees shall at their first meeting after each Annual General Meeting of the Club appoint one of their number to be the chairman of their meetings and may at any time remove him from that office. The chairman so elected shall not have a casting vote. Save as herein provided the Chairman of the Trustees shall be entitled to attend and speak at all meetings of the Directors of each of QCL and QCHL but shall not have a vote in his/their capacity as Trustee. The Chairman (or Chairmen) of the Boards of QCL and QCHL shall also be entitled to attend and speak at all meetings of the Trustees but shall not have a vote in their capacity as Directors.

- 3.5.2 Subject to the Transitional Provisions at Schedule 1(b), no Member shall serve more than two four year terms as a Trustee.
- 3.6 As far as is reasonably practicable and subject to any applicable laws, Annual General Meetings of QCL, QCHL and the Club together with the election of any Trustee shall be held on the same day in March of each year.
- 3.7 The Board and the Trustees as the case may be shall establish committees as set out in Schedule 5 which shall advise the Board and/or the Trustees and which shall have the powers set out in Schedule 5.
- ### 4. Membership Categories
- 4.1 The Club shall consist of the Royal Patron and the categories of Members set out in Schedule 2.
- 4.2 The Full Members shall pay such annual subscription as the Board may determine from time to time.
- 4.3 All other categories of member shall pay an annual subscription equal to that percentage of the annual subscription for full membership which appears in the relevant column in Schedule 2, subject to adjustment as the Board may determine from time to time.
- 4.4 The maximum number of Members for each category shall be fixed from time to time by the Board.
- 4.5 The Board shall have power to elect Members within the maximum numbers fixed under Rule 4.4. The Board shall take into account when electing Members any expected transition of Members from one category of membership to another by reason of age.
- 4.6 All Members of the Club shall, save as otherwise provided in these Rules and Bye-Laws, have the right to use the Facilities of the Club and shall have the Tournament Opportunities.
- 4.7 The Bye-Laws shall be determined by the Board and must not conflict with these Rules. Any Bye-Laws affecting the rights of the Under 12 Members, Country Members or Off Peak Members in their respective capacities shall be notified to them not later than 1st September in each year to come into effect upon renewal of their membership on 1st October in each year.
- 4.8 Royal Patron
The Club shall by invitation of the Directors have a Royal Patron. The current Royal Patron is HRH the Duchess of Gloucester.

5. Members

All persons seeking membership of any category (other than Under 12 category) shall require election and, on election, shall be entitled to use all the Facilities of the Club save as provided for in the respective categories referred to in rules 6 to 26 or elsewhere in these Rules or Bye-Laws. The parent(s) or guardian(s) of all Members under the age of 18 shall be responsible for ensuring that Member's good behaviour and compliance with these Rules.

6. Full Members

Full Members must be aged 28 or more on the 1st day of October in each year.

7. Full Under 28 Members

7.1 Persons under 28 years of age on the 1st day of October in each year shall be eligible to become Under 28 Members and shall have the rights attributable to the relevant membership category.

7.2 Any Member under the age of 28 shall not be required to hold a Redeemable Share.

7.3 Upon attaining the age of 28, a Member may become a Member in the appropriate category provided he shall have purchased a Redeemable Share on or before 1st October next following his 28th birthday. Except in the case of a Founder Member, failure to purchase a Redeemable Share shall result in such person ceasing to be a Member.

8. Full Under 22 Members

8.1 Persons under 22 years of age on the 1st day of October in each year shall be eligible to be Under 22 Members in the respective categories.

8.2 Any Member under the age of 22 shall not be required to hold a Redeemable Share.

8.3 Upon attaining the age of 22, such Members shall be transferred to an Under 28 Membership on the 1st day of October after attaining that age.

8.4 Any Member in this category who was not a holder of a Redeemable Share before the 1st May 2008 and who attains the age of 18 shall cease to be eligible for this category of membership on the 1st October next following his 18th birthday unless he shall be elected in accordance with Rules 5 and 28 save that the Board may waive the requirement for interview.

8.5 Any such Member who has failed to apply for election and/or who has failed to be elected in accordance with Rule 8.4 shall be deemed to have ceased to be a Member of the Club (and any Redeemable Share held by him shall be redeemable subject to the Articles of Association of QCHL).

8.6 Any Member who shall have ceased or will cease to be a Member of the Club by reason of Rules 8.4 and 8.5 may appeal to the Disciplinary Committee and by way of further appeal to the Disciplinary Appeal Tribunal for a review of his membership.

9. Full Under 12 Members

9.1 Children (whether by birth, adoption or guardianship) of Members, over 6 but under 12 years of age on the 1st day of October in each year, shall be eligible to be Full Under 12 Members on such conditions as are set out in the Bye-Laws but shall not (except as referred to in Rule 27.1.1) have the Tournament Opportunities unless they also hold a Redeemable Share.

9.2 No Member under the age of 12 shall be required to hold a Redeemable Share, nor to be elected in accordance with Rule 28. Should their parent or guardian cease to be a Member the child may nonetheless continue (at the request of the person so ceasing) to be a Member if the Board shall in its absolute discretion so determine.

9.3 Upon attaining the age of 12 such Members shall subject to Rule 8.4 be transferred to Under 22 membership on the 1st day of October after attaining that age.

10. Over 65 Members

Members over the age of 65 on the 1st day of October in any year following 20 years of being an Ordinary Member are eligible to become Over 65 Members in the respective categories. Only Existing Members aged 60 or over on the 1st day of October 2007 shall qualify for this category and may continue to enjoy the rights of this category.

11. Over 75 Members

Members over the age of 75 on the 1st day of October in any year following 30 years of being an Ordinary Member are eligible to become Over 75 Members in the respective categories and may continue to enjoy the rights of that category.

12. Full Country Members (including Under 28)

Founder Members with no residence or place of business within 50 miles of the Club shall be eligible to remain as Country Members (including Under 28 and Under 22). Such Members are permitted to play on such occasions and upon payment of such fees as the Bye-Laws shall provide. They must notify the Company Secretary if and as soon as they cease to meet the residence qualification of a Country Member. The Directors reserve the right to decline to retain any Member on the list of Country Members. There shall be no new entries to this category.

13. Off Peak Members (of all categories)

Members who otherwise qualify as Full Members may become Off Peak Full Members but their playing hours shall be determined by the Board and set out in the Bye-Laws.

14. Rackets Members (including Under 28)

Rackets Members shall not play Lawn Tennis at the Club but shall otherwise have the rights of Full Members.

15. Rackets Off Peak Members

Off Peak Rackets Members shall not play Lawn Tennis at the Club and shall be subject to the further restrictions applicable to Off Peak Full Members set out in the Bye-Laws but otherwise shall have the rights of Full Members.

16. Squash Members (including Under 28)

Squash Members shall not play Lawn Tennis, Real Tennis or Rackets at the Club but shall otherwise have the rights of Full Members.

17. Rackets Subsidised Members

Persons under 25 years of age on the 1st day of October in any year are eligible to become Rackets Subsidised Members provided they shall not play Lawn Tennis, Real Tennis or Squash at the Club but they shall otherwise have the rights of Full Members. Their election is subject to the approval of the Chief Executive of The Tennis and Rackets Association and the Board.

18. Scholarship Members and Match Play Members

Any Member is eligible to be a Scholarship or Match Play Member if they meet the criteria of the Richard Tur Foundation and may with the approval of the Trustees be so appointed. They shall be responsible for such proportion of their subscriptions and court fees as is not met by the Richard Tur Foundation. They shall not be required to hold a Redeemable Share. They shall have the rights of Under 22 Full Members but except as referred to in Rule 27.1.1 shall not have the Tournament Opportunities.

19. Life Members

Existing Life Members shall not be required to purchase a Redeemable Share or to pay a subscription and shall have all the rights of Full Members.

20. Honorary Members

Honorary Members shall have the rights of Social Members. If they wish to participate in any of the activities not available to Social Members they may also join, without the requirement for election under Rule 28, any other category of membership subject to meeting the other requirements of that category. For the avoidance of doubt they shall not have the Tournament Opportunities (except for those referred to in Rule 27.1.1) unless they purchase a Redeemable Share.

21. Temporary Members (including Under 28, Under 22 and Under 18)

This category ceased to exist on 30th September 2007.

22. Overseas Members (including Under 28)

22.1 Any Member of any category who has been a Member for not less than 6 months and who is about to absent himself from the United Kingdom for a continuous period of not less than 6 months may become an Overseas Member following the giving of one month's notice to that effect but for the avoidance of doubt must retain any Redeemable Share he may hold. Fees shall be adjusted accordingly at the absolute discretion of the Board.

- 22.2 Upon an Overseas Member returning to the United Kingdom on a temporary visit he shall, if he wishes to use the facilities of the Club, communicate his arrival in writing to the Company Secretary and he shall be so admitted upon payment of a fee (in addition to his subscription) at the then applicable rate for each month or part of a month of such use.
- 22.3 If, within 14 days after his return, an Overseas Member using the Club shall have neglected to notify the fact of his return to the Company Secretary, he shall cease to be a Member of the Club unless he can excuse the default to the satisfaction of the Board, who shall have the power to reinstate him.
- 22.4 A Member's subscription at normal rates (as opposed to the rate applicable to Overseas Members) shall become payable as from the date of his returning to reside in the United Kingdom, whether he uses the Facilities of the Club or not.

23. Social Members

- 23.1 Members in any other category may, in special circumstances and with the consent of the Board, transfer to Social membership. Thereafter, they may not play Lawn Tennis, Real Tennis, Rackets or Squash at the Club but may use the Gymnasium and other facilities of the Club.
- 23.2 Founder Members who are or who become Social Members need not hold a Redeemable Share but shall be liable for the 65% additional subscription payable by Members who do not hold a Redeemable Share (but not the £750 minimum figure referred to in Rule 34.5). If a Founder Member does not hold a Redeemable Share he shall not (except as referred to in Rule 27.1.1) have the Tournament Opportunities.

24. Staff Members

Any person who is required by his contract of employment or for services with OCL to use any of the playing facilities shall be a Staff Member in the appropriate category but shall not have the Tournament Opportunities.

25. Honorary Playing Members

- 25.1 The persons admitted to this category shall be:-
- 25.1.1 Past and present winners of the Tournament.
- 25.1.2 Subject to their gracious consent to be so appointed, HRH The Prince Edward, HRH The Duchess of Gloucester, HRH The Duke of Gloucester, HRH Princess Michael of Kent, HRH Prince Michael of Kent and HM King Constantine.
- 25.1.3 Such persons as have rendered exceptional or distinguished services to the Club or to racquets sports who may be awarded this category of membership by the Board and with the approval of two-thirds of the Members in general meeting or by postal ballot as the case may be.

- 25.1.4 At the discretion of the Board, winners of the British Open Real Tennis Singles Championship and the Rackets World Singles Championship held at The Queen's Club, for a period of 12 months from the date of victory.
- 25.2 Honorary Playing Members may be elected for life or for such other period and on such other terms as may be determined by the Members in general meeting or by postal ballot on the recommendation of the Board.
- 25.3 Honorary Playing Members are entitled to all the privileges of a Full Member without purchasing a Redeemable Share or paying any subscription.
- 25.4 A list of Honorary Playing Members shall be displayed in a prominent place within the Club.
- 26. Debenture Holders
The rights of the Debenture Holders are set out in Schedule 4.
- 27. The Tournament Opportunities
- 27.1 During the currency of the Tournament the Board will endeavour to ensure (but without being obliged to do so) that the Members shall have the following rights:-
- 27.1.1 To enter the Club House on each day of the Tournament to watch the tennis from the Pavilion area either by occupying one of the non-reserved seats or by standing where permitted to do so.
- 27.1.2 To enter, together with their approved guests holding a guest badge, the Members' Enclosure, being such area of the Club as the Board shall in its absolute discretion determine, for the purposes of purchasing lunch and tea and of entertaining such guests.
- 27.1.3 To apply, in priority to members of the general public, for a maximum of 10 seats overall in the Tournament week, with a maximum of 4 tickets on any one day.
- 27.1.4 To apply for preferential seating in the same 2 or 4 seats for each day of the Tournament subject to such restrictions as the Board may impose from time to time.
- 27.1.5 To apply for guest tickets to entertain their guests in the restaurant and café in the Clubhouse. Until such time as they have a separate dedicated Debenture Holders' Lounge as referred to in Schedule 4, Debenture Holders will have priority booking in respect of the restaurant.
- 27.1.6 To apply (on a first come first served basis) for the purchase of guest badges throughout the week of the Tournament, such guest badges permitting entry (with the Member) of the applicant's guest(s) to the Club House and Pavilion area.
- 27.1.7 To enter a ballot for any unallocated Royal Box tickets as described in Rule 27.2 below.
- 27.2.1 The Chairman and Chief Executive shall (subject to review by the Board) allocate the twelve or more daily places available in the Royal Box to such distinguished guests as they may together consider appropriate in the interests of the Club.

- 27.2.2 Any places not so allocated in the Royal Box shall be placed in a ballot to be conducted by the Company Secretary for all Shareholder Members who shall have applied under Rule 27.1.7 and shall be allocated to those successful in the ballot.
- 27.2.3 After contractual provision for the Debenture Holders all other tickets which are available for the Club or OCL shall be made available to the Members at a price to be determined by the Board and shall (in any case where demand exceeds supply) be allocated by way of ballot.
- 27.3 Any tickets received from the All England Lawn Tennis and Croquet Club or other sources for the Wimbledon Championships shall be made available to the Members at face value in a ballot conducted by the Company Secretary, save that a number to be determined by the Board in its absolute discretion may be reserved to Club staff.
The price to be paid by Members for each of these privileges is in the absolute discretion of the Board. These are the "Tournament Opportunities".
- 28. Procedure for Election of Members
- 28.1 A person for election in any category shall be proposed by one Member and seconded by another, to each of whom he must have been personally known for not less than two years. Such candidature shall be supported by letters from both the proposer and seconder, who must furnish the Board with full particulars as to the suitability of their candidate for election. No Member of less than one year's standing may propose or second a candidate. Candidates shall only be proposed or seconded by Members over 18 years of age. Candidates shall not be proposed and seconded by members of the same family. Candidates under the age of 18 may have the assistance or help of their parent or guardian in all matters under this rule.
- 28.2 The following particulars of the candidate must be provided on the application form:
- Name
 - Date of birth
 - Nationality
 - Rank, profession or other description
 - Usual place of residence
 - Place of business or other description
 - Telephone number(s) and email address
 - Names of proposer and seconder
- For candidates aged 18 and over, details of the racquet sports which they play and their standard of play (eg rankings, tournaments won, or school, university or club teams represented)
- Such further information as the Board may reasonably require

- 28.3 Upon application being made each Candidate shall pay the non-refundable registration fee (if any) determined by the Board.
- 28.4 If in any of the above particulars any misrepresentation shall be made, which in the opinion of the Directors is material and wilful, the Candidate, if elected, shall be deemed not to have been elected.
- 28.5 The names of candidates and of their proposers and seconders shall be posted on the Club notice board upon completion of the application formalities and at least 14 days before the day of their proposed election. Such list shall be dated and signed by or on behalf of the Board. Any Member who objects to the election of a candidate may write to the Company Secretary.
- 28.6 All candidates for election shall be interviewed as to their suitability. The Board shall appoint a panel of Members of long standing to assist in the carrying out of this function. This interview process shall not be delegated further.
- 28.7 Elections of Members to the Club may be by a majority of the Board taken on open vote but any member of the Board may demand a ballot in which case one vote in five against shall exclude the candidate from becoming a Member. No election on open vote shall be valid unless at least five Directors are present and vote.
- 28.8 Any candidate who has been rejected shall not again be eligible as a candidate until two years have elapsed after such rejection and he shall not be admitted to the Club premises during that period.
- 28.9 When a candidate has been duly elected the Board shall so inform him in writing and shall at the same time send to him a copy of the Rules and Bye-Laws. The candidate shall be required to submit a direct debit mandate to provide for the payment of subsequent fees, subscriptions and purchases made at the Club and other monies due to the Club, together with payment of the price for a Redeemable Share for all Ordinary Members and the subscription for the current year.
- 28.10 The candidate shall not be entitled to the benefits, privileges or use of the Facilities of the Club until he has paid such sum or sums, and completed and returned the direct debit mandate and, in the case of Ordinary Membership, purchased a Redeemable Share.
- 28.11 A candidate who shall not have paid his subscription and purchase price for the Redeemable Share (if any) within one month after the date of his election, shall be deemed not to have been elected.

29. Resignation of Members

Any Member intending to resign his membership of the Club shall signify his wish in writing to the Company Secretary on or before the 15th day of September in any year, failing which he shall be liable for his subscription for the ensuing year.

30. Transfer to a different Membership Category

Save as otherwise provided in these Rules, no Member shall automatically be entitled to transfer from one category of membership to another but may do so with the approval of the Board. Such transfer, if approved, will take effect from the 1st day of October in any year. Transfer at any other time during the Club year is solely at the discretion of the Board.

31. Members discontinuing to have no claim on the Club

Save as otherwise provided in these Rules, any person ceasing to be a Member for whatever reason shall have no claim upon or rights in relation to the Club, QCL, QCHL, the Board or the Trustees (other than such as may arise in relation to his Redeemable Share under the Articles of Association of QCHL).

32. Expulsion, Suspension and Caution of Members

- 32.1 Any misconduct of a Member or his guest, or any infraction of the Rules or Bye-Laws of the Club by a Member which may be injurious to the character and interests of the Club or its members shall be referred to the Disciplinary Committee. The Disciplinary Committee shall be appointed by the Board and shall consist of at least one director and two other Members, who may also be directors. No Trustee shall be a member of the Disciplinary Committee.
- 32.2 The Disciplinary Committee if it considers any Member to be in breach of Rule 32.1 above, shall request the Member to furnish an explanation to it, either verbally or in writing and shall consider such other evidence as may appear to them appropriate.
- 32.3 Following the provision of such explanation, the Committee may recommend to the Board that such Member be expelled, or suspended from the privileges and use of the Facilities of the Club for a finite period. The Disciplinary Committee and Chief Executive shall additionally have power to caution a Member as either of them shall see fit.
- 32.4 The Board may accept such recommendation or substitute their own decision. The Board's decision will be notified to the Member in question through the Company Secretary. Subject to appeal as hereinafter provided, such decision shall be final and binding on the Member concerned. No Trustee shall take part in the decision of the Board.
- 32.5 Any Member who is expelled under this rule shall not enter the Club as a visitor or otherwise. Any Member who is suspended under this rule shall not enter the Club as a visitor or otherwise during his period of suspension.
- 32.6 All payments already made by such Member shall be forfeited but this shall not affect any rights he may have under the Articles of Association of QCHL in relation to his Redeemable Share.
- 32.7 Any member aggrieved by a decision of the Board may, within 28 days of the decision being made known to him at his last known address, appeal to the Disciplinary Appeal Tribunal.
- 32.7.1 Such appeal shall be made in writing addressed to the Trustees at the Club's address.

32.7.2 The Disciplinary Appeal Tribunal shall be appointed by the Trustees and shall be not less than three in number. It shall consist of at least one Trustee together with such other Full Members (who may or may not be Trustees) as the Trustees shall in their absolute discretion decide, of whom at least one must be legally qualified.

32.7.3 The Disciplinary Appeal Tribunal shall determine its own rules of procedure.

32.7.4 The Disciplinary Appeal Tribunal shall report in writing to the Trustees with its recommendations, and the Trustees shall have the absolute discretion to allow any appeal in whole or in part. Such decision may be by majority decision.

32.8 Any Member may be represented before the Disciplinary Committee and the Disciplinary Appeal Tribunal and may in addition be accompanied by a fellow Member (or their parent or guardian if appropriate) before the Disciplinary Committee and the Disciplinary Appeal Tribunal.

33. Defaulters

Any Member who, after due notice has failed to pay any sum due to the Club, shall upon the decision of the Board cease to be a Member of the Club.

34. Subscriptions and Entrance Fees

34.1 The Directors shall from time to time issue a schedule of subscriptions for the various categories of Members and a schedule of fees for the use of the Facilities of the Club.

34.2 Payment of the subscription shall be deemed to constitute acceptance of these Rules and Bye-Laws.

34.3 Save as may be agreed by the Directors, all subscriptions shall be payable on the 1st day of October each year by direct debit. Payment of any subscription by quarterly instalments on 1st October, 1st January, 1st April and 1st July will only be accepted by direct debit mandate and will carry interest and administration fees at such rate as the Directors shall determine from time to time.

34.4 If the subscription is not paid by 15th day of November in the relevant year or within 14 days of the relevant quarterly payment as above, the Member, although still liable for the subscription due, shall upon the decision of the Board cease to be a Member unless he can excuse such default to the satisfaction of the Board, which shall have the power to restore his membership.

34.5 Founder Members who are also Ordinary Members who do not subscribe before the 1st day of September in any year for a Redeemable Share shall pay an additional subscription equal to 65% of the usual subscription for the relevant category of membership or £750, whichever shall be the greater. This does not apply to Honorary Members, Honorary Playing Members or Life Members and applies to Social Members with modification (see Rule 23.2).

34.6 Any Member who is aged 18 or over on the 1st day of October in each year must complete or have completed a direct debit mandate in favour of the Club for the payment of all fees, subscriptions and purchases made at the Club insofar as they are not otherwise paid for. The parent, grandparent or guardian of any Member under the age of 18 on the 1st day of October in each year may complete a direct debit mandate in favour of the Club for the payment of that Member's annual membership subscriptions. Members who are under 18 on the 1st day of October in any year must make payment at the time of purchase of any goods or services by them. The Board may in its absolute discretion permit the charging of the costs of any goods or services by a person under the age of 18 to the account of a Full Member provided that permission is given by such Full Member in writing.

35. Exceptional Hardship

Any Member who finds himself unable, by reason of exceptional hardship, to pay his subscription may apply to the Trustees for the remission in whole or in part of his annual subscription. The Trustees may then recommend to the Board (but the Board shall not be bound to accept):

35.1 that the subscription for the year be waived in whole or in part: and/or 35.2 that the subscription for the year be left outstanding as a debt due to QCL not to be demanded until either the Member's circumstances improve or the Member's death and in such circumstances the Member shall enter into such agreement with QCL for payment as the Board shall reasonably require.

36. Richard Tur Foundation/Charitable Activities

36.1 The Trustees may within their discretion, award funds by way of sports scholarship from the Richard Tur Foundation (a foundation established by the terms of settlement of the Litigation) to any person under the age of 28 who is resident in the local community and who appears to them to meet the criteria laid down by the Foundation, such funds to be used to subsidise that person's annual subscription and/or court fees in whole or in part.

36.2 The Board may apply Members' subscriptions for charitable purposes.

37. Guests

37.1 Except on such occasions as the Board may decide, all Members shall have the right to introduce guests to the Club without payment. The Board may withdraw such right to introduce guests during tournaments, exhibitions and matches.

37.2 A book, card or electronic system shall be kept in which the names of guests using the facilities for Lawn Tennis, Real Tennis, Rackets and Squash Rackets must be entered by the Member, together with the name of the introducing Member.

37.3 A Member shall in every case be responsible for any expenses incurred by his guest to the Club and for the guest's observance of these Rules and Bye-Laws.

37.4 No guest may, except with the consent of the Board, use the facilities for Lawn Tennis, Real Tennis, Rackets or Squash more than 6 times in the 12 month period commencing on the 1st day of October in each year.

37.5 No guest may use the Gymnasium.

37.6 Guest fees and the conditions governing them will be found in the scale of charges and in the Bye-Laws.

38. Management of the Club

38.1 The management of the Club shall be in the control of the Board subject to these Rules and the Bye-Laws. The scale of fees and charges both for Members and guests for the use of the facilities of the Club and all other charges shall be fixed by the Board. The Board, subject to these Rules, shall also have power to alter, vary, raise or lower the amounts to be paid by way of court fees and annual subscriptions, provided that in making such alterations, at least 28 days' notice expiring on the 30th day of September of any year shall be given by means of notices posted on the Club notice board.

38.2 The Company Secretary of QCL and QCHL, the Chief Executive and other officers and employees of the Club and/or QCL and/or QCHL shall be appointed by the relevant Board (whether of QCL or QCHL, as the case may be) which shall also determine their respective duties and allocate to them such authority as the relevant Board shall deem expedient.

38.3 The Board may suspend, withdraw or impose conditions (including financial conditions) on the use of the Facilities of the Club by the Members as it shall in its absolute discretion consider to be necessary in the best interests of the Club.

38.4 The Board may make, suspend or alter Bye-Laws that do not conflict with these Rules, provided that any new, suspended or altered Bye-Laws shall be posted on the Club notice board for information and shall not be deemed to have become binding (or, as the case may be, to have ceased to become binding) until seven days from the date of such posting. The Bye-Laws shall be in force until suspended, altered or revoked either by the Board or at an Extraordinary General Meeting or Annual General Meeting of the Club.

38.5.1 No Director shall directly or indirectly have any financial interest in any contract with the Club other than with the prior agreement of the Board.

38.5.2 A record of any such financial interests shall be kept by the Company Secretary and all members shall have the right to inspect the same. Failure to declare such an interest may result in a lifetime ban of that person from being a Director.

38.5.3 No Director or Trustee shall be entitled to payment for the performance of his duties but the Directors and Trustees shall be entitled to reimbursement of their reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of their respective duties and they may with the consent of the Board request that QCL or QCHL enter into direct contracts with suppliers for the payment of reasonable expenditure so incurred by them.

38.5.4 The Company Secretary of QCL shall keep an account of the Directors' and Trustees' expenses. Such account shall be open to inspection by any Member on reasonable notice to the Company Secretary of QCL.

38.6 The Board shall have power to appoint committees and working parties from time to time from their own body, and from Members of the Club generally, for such purposes as they may deem expedient.

38.7 The Board may in its absolute discretion and to the extent permitted by law delegate its powers contained in these Rules.

38.8 In any one financial year the Board is authorised to commit the Club to:

- (a) Any one item of capital expenditure up to an amount of £500,000.
- (b) Total capital expenditure up to an amount of £1 million.

Proposed capital expenditure above these levels must be approved by the Members in general meeting.

38.9 At the beginning of the financial year a detailed capital expenditure budget shall be reviewed and approved by the Finance Committee and then sent to the Board for discussion and approval.

38.10 Any item of capital expenditure not in the approved budget in excess of £10,000 shall be reviewed by the Finance Committee and approved by the Board.

38.11 The final capital expenditure budget approved by the Board shall be posted on the notice board and the website within 21 days of approval.

38.12 If during the course of the financial year actual capital expenditure exceeds the budget by £50,000 or more, details shall be posted on the notice board and the website after consideration by the Finance Committee and within 21 days of approval by the Board.

38.13 The Board will endeavour to post on the Club's website any notices which under these Rules are to be displayed on the Club's notice board.

38.14 There shall be established the committees set out in Schedule 5 which shall have the powers and duties set out therein.

39. Election and Retirement of Directors and Trustees

The procedure for election and retirement of the Directors and the Trustees is set out in Schedule 3.

40. General Meetings

40.1 The Annual General Meeting of each of the Club, QCL and QCHL shall be held at the Club in March of each year. The Annual General Meeting of the Club shall be held for the following purposes:

- 40.1.1 To receive the Reports and Accounts of QCL and QCHL.
- 40.1.2 To elect Directors to fill vacancies on the Board, the Board of QCHL and the Trustees in place of those retiring.
- 40.1.3 To decide on any proposition submitted to such meeting in accordance with the Rules of the Club or the Articles of Association of QCL or QCHL and in particular the authorisation of capital expenditure under Rule 38.8, the election of any Honorary Playing Member or any changes to these Rules.

- 40.2.1 At least 28 days' written notice must be given for every Annual General Meeting. For all other General Meetings, at least 21 days' written notice must be given. A copy of the notice must be displayed on the notice board of the Club 28 days before the Annual General Meeting and 21 days before all other General Meetings.
- 40.2.2 The notice for any General Meeting must state:-
- (i) where the meeting is to be held;
 - (ii) the date and time of the meeting;
 - (iii) the general nature of the business of the meeting (in the case of an Annual General Meeting) or the form of the relevant resolution (in the case of any other General Meeting); and
 - (iv) details of the Members who have put themselves forward to become Directors or Trustees in accordance with Schedule 3
- 40.2.3 All Members entitled to attend and vote at any General Meeting of the Club must be given written notice of every General Meeting.
- 40.2.4 If any notice or other document relating to any meeting or other proceeding is accidentally not sent, or is not received, the meeting or other proceeding will not be invalid as a result.
- 40.2.5 Amendments can be proposed to any resolution.
- 40.2.6 Only Members who are eligible to attend and vote and who are present in person at a General Meeting can vote on a show of hands or on a poll. They will have one vote each. A vote shall be taken at the meeting of the Club before it is taken at a meeting of QCL and QCHL. Proxies cannot vote either on a show of hands or on a poll at a meeting of the Club. If the Board or not less than 30 Members by written requisition to the Board shall within 14 days of the General Meeting demand a postal vote then the Board shall within 21 days of receipt of such requisition cause a postal vote to be put into effect. Only votes received by the Company Secretary within 21 days of the despatch of the voting paper shall be counted. For the avoidance of doubt, this procedure does not apply to the election of Directors, which is in accordance with Schedule 3.
- 40.3 All Members aged 18 and over are eligible to attend and vote (whether in person or by postal vote) in all matters.
- 40.4 Any resolution passed in General Meeting in accordance with Rule 40.2.6 shall only come into effect 15 days after it is passed. If the Board or the appropriate number of Members requisition a postal vote then the result of the postal vote shall be conclusive and the relevant resolution passed at the relevant General Meeting shall (if in conflict with the resolution passed by postal vote) thereupon cease to have effect.
- 40.5 No audio or video recording of any General Meeting is permitted without the authority of the Chairman of that meeting.

41. Extraordinary General Meeting

- 41.1 The Board may call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Club at any time and shall be obliged to call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Club within 28 days of a written requisition signed by not less than 60 Members. Such requisition must set out the resolution to be proposed at the meeting.

42. Alteration of Rules

- Resolutions to pass new Rules or to alter existing ones shall not be carried except:
- 42.1 by a majority of two-thirds of the Members present and voting at an Annual General Meeting or Extraordinary General Meeting of the Club or at a postal vote thereafter if one is demanded;
- AND*
- 42.2 if they shall have been approved by the Board, the Board of QCHL and the Trustees.

43. Opening and Closing of the Club

- 43.1 The Club and its Facilities shall be open at the times referred to in the Bye-Laws.
- 43.2 No Member shall be admitted to the Club while it is closed.
- 43.3 The Board may at any time close the Club grounds, buildings or any part thereof or restrict their use by Members in order to execute repairs, alterations, redecorations or otherwise or to facilitate the holding of any such tournament or exhibition match as the Board shall consider is in the best interests of QCL and the Club.

44. Games and Gymnasium

- 44.1 The regulations affecting the various games and the use of the Gymnasium, together with the times for opening and closing, are set out in the Bye-Laws.
- 44.2 The fees and charges for the use of courts and the services of professionals and markers are set out in the schedule of charges determined by the Board.

45. Unofficial Coaching

No Member shall pay or receive money or other benefit of any nature for playing with or against any other Member or guest at any of the games played at the Club, but this shall not preclude the services of professionals employed or authorised by the Club. Any breach of this rule may be referred by any Member to a Director or the Chief Executive.

46. Billiards and Snooker

The regulations affecting the Billiard Room are set out in the Bye-Laws.

47. Games of Hazard

- 47.1 The only games (other than racquets sports, billiard and snooker) permitted in the Club are:
Whist, Solo Whist, Bridge, Piquet, Bezique, Cribbage, Patience and Canasta.

The Board may extend or restrict this list by amendment to the Bye-Laws. Gaming or wagering are strictly prohibited.

- 47.2 Cards shall be played only in the rooms allotted for play by the Board.
- 47.3 Every Member shall settle his and his guest's table money dues, card accounts and fines (if any) before leaving the Club premises.
- 47.4 Any Member whose table money dues, card accounts and fines or those of his guest have not been settled on the day of play shall, if he fails to give sufficient explanation to the Board when called upon, be removed by the Board from the list of Members of the Club, and he shall forfeit all right to use the Club, together with any sums which he shall have paid for his subscription.
- 48. Club not to be used for Business Purposes
- No Member shall carry on his profession or business in the Club nor use its name in any advertisement, prospectus or description, nor cause any letters to be addressed to him at the Club otherwise than in his own proper name. No Member shall use the Club for the purpose of interviewing or engaging employees. Members may hire the facilities of the Club for these and other purposes on such terms as the Board may determine from time to time.
- 49. Notices
- No paper or placard written or printed shall be put up in the Club without the sanction of the Chief Executive.
- 50. Club Address
- No Member of the Club shall allow his name with the address of the Club attached thereto to appear in any advertisement whatever, or in the prospectus of any public company of which he may be a director or officer.
- 51. Members' Addresses, Letters and Parcels
- 51.1 Each Member shall communicate his address, his electronic address or that of his Banker or Agent from time to time to the Company Secretary, and all notices sent to such address shall be considered as duly delivered. If a Member leaves no address, the Club shall be deemed his last known address.
- 51.2 Addresses and telephone numbers of Members shall not be given by any employee of the Club to any person, other than another Member. Communications in writing (but not parcels) addressed to a Member at the Club will be forwarded if practicable at the Member's risk.
- 51.3 No such communication or parcel addressed to a Member shall be given to any person except the Member to whom it is addressed without such Member's written authority.
- 51.4 Every Member shall be entitled to know the name, address, telephone number and electronic address (if any) of every other Member but shall not communicate this information to a non-Member. If such information is so communicated it shall constitute grounds for expulsion in accordance with the procedure in Rule 32.

- 51.5 Personal data including electronic addresses supplied to a Member by an employee of the Club shall only be used for matters relating to the Club and shall not be used for commercial purposes.

52. Payment of Accounts

- 52.1 Members over the age of 18 may only obtain credit at the Club by using their membership card backed by a direct debit mandate. The Directors may grant facilities to Members to obtain credit but in the event of failure to comply with the terms thereof, a Member shall not be entitled to any of his rights as a Member.
- 52.2 In addition to the above all unpaid bills will bear such interest as the Directors shall determine.
- 52.3 The Board may establish a fund for providing loans to Existing Members and prospective Members for the purpose of purchasing Redeemable Shares.
- 52.4 If and to the extent that any Member owes any amount for whatever reason to the Club (or as the case may be to QCHL or QCL or any other subsidiary of QCHL) then the Club (or as the case may be QCHL or QCL or such other subsidiary of QCHL) shall be entitled to set off such amount against any amount which any of those entities is then or becomes obliged to pay to that Member.

53. Cheques

The Club will not cash cheques.

54. Employees

- 54.1 No Member shall intimate or cause to be intimated to any QCL employee his willingness to take any such employee into his service.
- 54.2 Members desiring the services of any of QCL's employees outside the Club premises must make application to the Chief Executive. Permission for such services will only be granted in exceptional circumstances.

55. Suggestions or Complaints

- 55.1 A Member having cause for complaint or suggestions to make shall address a letter to the Company Secretary, giving the particulars thereof. The Company Secretary shall refer the matter to the Chief Executive or to the Board, as appropriate.
- 55.2 In no case shall a Member be the subject of a personal reprimand for making a complaint against an official or employee.

56. Dogs or any other Animals

No Member or guest shall bring a dog or any other animal into the Club premises or buildings.

57. Removal of Books, Newspapers etc.

No Member shall remove a book, newspaper, magazine or periodical of any description from a public room, or remove or permit to be taken from the Clubhouse any article the property of the Club or QCL supplied for the general use of Members.

58. Liquor

Intoxicating liquor may be sold to Members and other persons in accordance with the terms, from time to time, of the Club's Licence.

59. Loss of Members' Property and Exclusion of Liability

59.1 No responsibility or liability shall attach to the Club, QCL or QCHL in respect of the property of any Member, or of his guests, which may be lost in the Club. The Club and QCL reserves the right to dispose of any property found, but which remains unclaimed after three months.

59.2 QCL and its employees will not be liable in any way for the loss of, or damage to, the property of Members or (to the extent such exclusion is permitted by law) for personal injury to or death of any Member, except to the extent that such loss, damage, personal injury or death arises from the wilful act, neglect or default of QCL or any of its employees.

60. Availability of Rules

A copy of these Rules and the Bye-Laws shall be retained in Reception and no Member shall be absolved from their effect by any allegation of not having received them or of ignorance of their contents.

61. Final Distribution Rules

This Rule is made pursuant to clause 1.2 of the Deed of Trust. Should the Club be dissolved or otherwise cease to exist the trust property shall after payment of all liabilities be distributed among past and then present Members as the Trustees shall in their absolute discretion determine. The Trustees shall at the expense of the trust properly carry out such enquiries and consultations as they shall in their absolute discretion think fit and may apply to the court for directions or sanction.

62. Disclosure of Information

All Members shall be entitled to receive and/or to inspect the minutes, records and financial and other information of the Club at the times and on the basis referred to in Schedule 6.

Schedule 1(a)

Transitional provisions for election of Directors

1. Four out of those elected as Member Directors in September 2007 shall stand down at the Annual General Meeting in 2009 and four new Members shall be elected as Member Directors in accordance with Schedule 3.
2. At the 2010 Annual General Meeting the remaining two Member Directors elected in 2007 shall stand down and two out of the six elected as Directors in 2008 shall stand down and four new Member Directors shall be elected in accordance with Schedule 3.
3. At the 2011 Annual General Meeting the balance of four Member Directors elected in 2008 shall stand down and four new Members shall be elected in accordance with Schedule 3.
4. Thereafter, each Member Director shall stand down as provided in Rule 3.3.
5. If the Directors who are to retire under the terms of this Schedule cannot agree between them as to which of them should stand down, then the persons to stand down shall be selected by lot. The Company Secretary of QCL shall conduct the lot.
6. For the avoidance of doubt, Member Directors shall serve a maximum of two consecutive three year terms. The holding of office as a Director otherwise than pursuant to election by the Members (eg by appointment by the Trustees or by the Board to fill a vacancy pursuant to Rule 3.3.3) shall not count as one of those terms.

Schedule 1(b)

Transitional provisions for the election of Trustees

1. In each of the four years commencing in 2009 one of the Trustees elected in 2008 shall stand down, his replacement to be elected in accordance with Schedule 3(b).
2. If the Trustees who are to retire under the terms of this Schedule cannot agree between them as to which of them should stand down then the persons to stand down shall be selected by lot. The Company Secretary of QCL shall conduct the lot.
3. Notwithstanding the provisions of Rule 3.5.2, the Trustees in office on 1st January 2008 may stand for election for two consecutive four year terms.

Schedule 3(a)

Appointment of Directors of QCHL and QCL

1. The Directors of QCHL shall be appointed by the ordinary shareholders of QCHL. QCT, which is a substantial holder of ordinary shares of QCHL, shall vote its shares in accordance with such directions as may be received by the Trustees from the Members from time to time in accordance with these Rules (Member Directors).
2. The Directors of QCL shall be the same persons as the Directors of QCHL. The Chairman of the Board of Directors of QCL and QCHL can attend the meetings of QC Trustees Ltd and the Chairman of QC Trustees Ltd can attend the Board of Directors of QCL and QCHL, but neither would have voting rights.
3. Any Member (not being the person to be nominated) aged 18 or over on the preceding 1st day of October may nominate only one Member to be appointed as a director of QCL and of QCHL at an Annual General Meeting of the Club. In order to do so, he must deliver to the Company Secretary of QCL not less than 42 nor more than 60 days before the day of the relevant Annual General Meeting:
 - 3.1 a letter stating that he intends to nominate another Member for election as a Director; and
 - 3.2 written confirmation from that other Member that he is willing to be elected.
4. Not less than 35 days before the Annual General Meeting of the Club a list of retiring Directors and of the Members nominated to fill the vacancies shall be posted on the Club notice board (collectively in this Schedule "the Candidates").
5. No committee, group, association, alliance, faction or club shall by way of unsolicited communication in writing canvass the Members in support of a particular Candidate or indicate in any way that a Candidate is a member of or favoured by any committee, group, association, alliance, faction or club.
6. Not less than 28 clear days before the Annual General Meeting of the Club the Company Secretary shall write to the Members notifying them of the nominations and enclosing a ballot paper on which the Members shall cast their vote for up to but not exceeding the number of vacancies to be filled with the Candidates of their choice. Each Candidate may request the Company Secretary of QCL to include material promoting himself to the Members (not longer than 250 words and a photograph if the Candidate so wishes) which the Company Secretary shall cause to be despatched to the Members with the notification provided the same is not defamatory or would in his reasonable opinion bring the Club into disrepute. Voting for more than the relevant number of vacancies shall render the ballot paper invalid and it shall not count. In the event of there being the same number or less nominations than there are vacancies there shall be no need for a ballot and such persons as have been nominated shall be deemed to be elected and the appropriate directions shall be given by the Company Secretary to QCHL and QCL.

7. The completed ballot papers must be received by the Company Secretary not later than 3 days prior to the Annual General Meeting. The Company Secretary shall ensure that the ballot papers remain secure and are delivered to the Electoral Reform Society (or to such other independent scrutineers as shall be appointed by the Trustees).
8. The ballot papers shall be counted by the Electoral Reform Society or other independent scrutineers appointed by the Trustees who shall deliver the results of the ballot to the Company Secretary of QCL. The first-past-the-post system will be adopted by the Club so the successful Candidates will be those with the most votes.
9. The Company Secretary of QCL shall announce the results of the successful Candidates at the Annual General Meeting of the Club and shall give the appropriate notification to the Ordinary Shareholders in QCHL.
10. In the event of any vacancies arising in the elected Boards of QCL or QCHL after the annual ballot and before the next Annual General Meeting of the Club, the Directors of QCL or (as the case may be) QCHL shall have the power to fill them. Any Director so appointed shall be subject to retirement at the next Annual General Meeting of the Club but his time served as an unelected Director shall not be counted for the purposes of Rule 3.3.4.

Schedule 3(b)

Election of Trustees

1. Any member (not being the person to be nominated) aged 18 or over on the preceding 1st day of October may nominate a Member to be appointed a Trustee at an Annual General Meeting of the Club. In order to do so he must deliver to the company secretary of QCHL not less than 42 nor more than 60 days before the day of the relevant General Meeting:
 - 1.1. a letter stating that he intends to nominate another Member for election as a Trustee; and
 - 1.2. written confirmation from that member that he is willing to be elected as a Trustee.

The Board of QCHL may also nominate up to 4 Members to be appointed as a Trustee at an Annual General Meeting of the Club.
2. Not less than 35 days before the Annual General Meeting of the Club a list of retiring Trustee(s) and of the Trustee(s) nominated to fill the vacancies shall be posted on the Club notice board.
3. The provisions of Schedule 3a paragraph 5 shall apply subject to such amendment as the context permits.
4. Not less than 28 clear days before the Annual General Meeting of the Club the Company Secretary of QCHL shall write to the Members notifying them of the nominations and enclosing a ballot paper on which the Members shall cast their votes for up to but not exceeding the number of vacancies to be filled with the candidates of their choice. Each candidate may request the Company Secretary of QCHL to include material promoting himself to the members (not longer than 250 words together with a photograph if the candidate so wishes) which the Company Secretary of QCHL shall cause to be despatched with the notification provided the same is not defamatory or would in his reasonable opinion bring the Club into disrepute. Voting for more than the relevant number of vacancies shall render the ballot paper invalid and it shall not count. In the event of there being the same number or less nominations than there are vacancies there shall be no need for a ballot and such persons as have been nominated shall be deemed to be elected.
5. The completed ballot papers must be received by the Company Secretary of QCHL not later than 3 days prior to the Annual General Meeting.
6. The ballot papers shall be counted by independent scrutineers appointed by the Company Secretary of QCHL who shall deliver the results of the ballot to the Company Secretary of QCHL. The first past the post system will be adopted by the Club so the successful candidates will be those with the most votes.

7. The Company Secretary of QCHL shall announce the result of the successful candidates at the Annual General Meeting of the Club and shall notify the other Trustees accordingly.
8. In the event of there being at any one time less than four Trustees then in accordance with the Deed of Trust the remaining Trustees may appoint additional Trustee(s). Any Trustee so appointed shall be subject to retirement at the next Annual General Meeting of the Club. For the avoidance of doubt his unelected period of service as a Trustee would not count towards the two consecutive periods of four years referred to in Rule 3.5.2.

Schedule 4

The Rights of the Debenture Holders under these Rules

1. The full rights and obligations of QCHL and the Debenture Holders are set out in a Deed of Covenant made between the respective Debenture Holders and QCHL ("the Debenture Deed"). Nothing in these Rules shall be so construed as to prevent the performance of the respective rights and obligations contained therein.
2. The Board shall:
 - 2.1 provide in the Bye-Laws for a total of 3 Lawn Tennis courts being available for all Debenture Holders 3 days in advance of the regular booking period for the Debenture Holder's own use only (except in May and June). 7. There is provision for a Debenture Holders' dinner prior to the Tournament and the provision of an Honours Board within the Club.

Schedule 5

Committees

1. The Board may establish such committees as it shall determine to be necessary to assist it in its duties. Each such committee shall have a Director amongst its members.
2. The Board, in consultation with the relevant committee, shall be responsible for establishing that committee's terms of reference. This shall not apply to the Rules Committee or the Audit Committee, whose terms of reference are set out below.
3. Each committee shall have such authority and power as the Board may in its absolute discretion determine, save that no committee may, without the approval of the Board on each occasion, authorise any expenditure.
4. The Trustees shall appoint:
 - 4.1 An Audit Committee

No Director shall be a member of the Audit Committee. The Audit Committee shall be appointed by the Trustees and shall consist of not less than three Members who are suitably qualified for the performance of the functions of this committee. This committee shall report directly to the Trustees as well as to the Board. Their function shall be:

 - 4.1.1 to monitor the integrity of the financial statements of QCL and QCHL;
 - 4.1.2 to review the company's internal financial controls ;
 - 4.1.3 to monitor and review the effectiveness of internal audit, if any;
 - 4.1.4 to recommend the appointment of the external auditor and consider their remuneration and terms of engagement;
 - 4.1.5 to review and monitor the external auditor's independence, objectivity and the effectiveness of the audit process;
 - 4.1.6 to develop and implement policy on any use of the external auditor to supply non-audit services;
 - 4.1.7 to review whistle blowing arrangements for staff.
 - 4.2 A Rules Committee

The Rules Committee shall be at least three in number and shall consist of at least one Trustee and such other Full Members duly appointed by the Trustees who are suitably qualified for the performance of the functions of this committee. The function of this committee is to recommend to the Trustees, the Board and the Members any changes to these Rules and to advise upon the Bye-Laws and other constitutional matters.

Schedule 6

Disclosure of Information

1. Except as referred to in this Schedule below, or otherwise as required by law, these Rules or the Articles of Association, Members shall not be entitled to receive or to inspect contracts, deeds, documents, records or financial or other information held by the Club.

Contracts

2. The Board and/or (as the case may be) the Trustees may in their sole discretion make available for inspection, on such terms as they shall think fit, contracts and other legal documents relating to the Club, or appropriate summaries thereof.

Minutes

4. "Club Minutes" (meaning minutes subject to the exclusions and modifications set out below) of meetings of the Board shall within 14 days after approval be made available to Members on the notice board and through such other means of communication as the Chief Executive shall think fit.
5. Confidential matters shall not be included in Club Minutes. For this purpose "confidential matters" shall include, but shall not be limited to, matters which are personally sensitive (such as disciplinary and hardship issues, or items which may affect the livelihood of individual members of staff) commercially sensitive (such as details of contract negotiations and tenders for capital expenditure) or matters which are of a litigious nature. The decision of the Chairman as to confidential matters which are not appropriate for inclusion in Club Minutes shall be final.
6. Individual expressions of opinion or of dissent shall not be recorded in the Club Minutes, but only collective decisions of the Board.
7. Minutes which are prepared for circulation to and use by the Board or by any Committee of the Board, but which do contain confidential matters or individual expressions of opinion as referred to in paragraphs 4 and 5 above ("Confidential Minutes") including for the avoidance of doubt the Confidential Minutes of the Board or any Committee of the Board relating to meetings held prior to 20 May 2009 shall not be available to any Member of the Club except (a) to the Trustees during their respective periods of office and (b) to Directors during their respective periods of office. Trustees and Directors having access to such Minutes are obliged to respect the confidentiality thereof.
8. Club Minutes for any Committees of the Board shall be prepared and made available to Members with effect from such date as the Board shall think fit, but by no later than the date of the 2011 AGM of the Club. Such Club Minutes shall also be made available within 14 days after approval, on the notice board and through such other means of communication as the Chief Executive shall think fit.

9. Minutes of the meetings of the Trustees shall also be made available on the same basis as Club Minutes of meetings of the Board. Minutes of the meetings of the Audit Committee and the recommendations of the Rules Committee shall be prepared on a similar basis and made available to Members from such date and on such terms as the Trustees shall think fit, but so that such minutes will start to be available from no later than the 2011 AGM of the Club.

Financial Information

10. As required by law, financial information shall be made available to Members once a year in the annual audited report and accounts by such means of communication as the Chief Executive shall think fit.
11. The following financial information shall be made available for inspection at the Club on prior application to the Company Secretary/ Chief Financial Officer:

- (f) The right is reserved to move any cars parked in an unauthorised manner.
- (g) Motorcycles and bicycles are to be left in the bays and racks provided.

5. Court Booking and Charges

- (a) The schedule of charges for court and guest fees will be reviewed annually by the Board to take effect on 1st October in each year. They will be displayed on the Club notice board and website.
- (b) All charges for court fees must be paid in full, on the day of play, by the Member in whose name the court is booked. No partial court fees are allowed, save those payable by Members for real tennis and rackets courts, as well as by Members playing a lawn tennis or squash game arranged by the Club.
- (c) The Member in whose name the court is booked should confirm his booking prior to play, on the day of play. For Members with a direct debit in force, such confirmation constitutes acceptance that the appropriate court fee should be charged to the Member's account.
- (d) Members with a direct debit in force who fail to confirm the court at Reception will be levied a "no show" charge, whether or not the court is used. Members without a direct debit in force, who fail to confirm the court, will be levied the court fee and the "no show" charge, together with an additional administrative charge. Such charge shall be determined by the Board from time to time.
- (e) If the court has been paid for in advance, the Member has the right to use it, whatever time he arrives. If the court has been booked but not paid for, it will not be held for more than 10 minutes beyond the starting time for which it is booked. It is then available for rebooking. The time shall be the time of the clock in reception.
- (f) When booking, a Member may not use the name of another Member, save when booking for Members of his immediate family.
- (g) Courts may be reserved, at the discretion of Board, for coaching, for matches, tournaments, group sessions and all booking rights are subject to such reservations or any other events.

6. Guests

- (a) Guests must be declared at the Gate, the guest forms completed at Reception and the appropriate fee paid, prior to play. In the event of a Member failing to ensure that the guest fee is paid, the Member will be charged an additional levy of £25. On the occasion of the second such failure, the Member will be charged an additional levy of £100.
- (b) No guest shall be admitted to the Club or grounds for the purpose of playing more than six times in any one financial year (from 1 October each year).
- (c) Guests may park provided that space is available.
- (d) Guests who are under 28 on the day of play shall pay a guest fee half the price paid by a guest who is 28 or over on the day of play.
- (e) The Board may at their discretion withdraw the privileges of Members to introduce guests during tournaments, exhibitions or matches.
- (f) It is the responsibility of the Members to ensure that their guests conform to the Rules and Bye-Laws of the Club. This includes adherence to dress regulations.
- (g) Guests are not permitted to use the Gymnasium.

17. Children in the Club

(a) Members accompanying children under 12 years of age into the Club are responsible for their safety and behaviour and should be in close proximity at all times.

(b) Children under the age of 6 are not allowed in the public rooms, with the exception of Sundays between 11.00am – 4.00pm on condition that children behave in an appropriate manner and are accompanied by an adult at all times.

(c) Children aged 8 – 11 inclusive are permitted to use the TV Room and the Café, as long as they are accompanied by an adult at all times.

(d) Children aged 12 and over may use the Café and TV Room without being accompanied. Normal licensing laws restrict their use of the bars.

(e) Children under 12 may use the tennis and the non tennis facilities of the Junior Club, as long as they are accompanied in the building by an adult at all times, the exception being when the child is taking part in a coaching or Club organised session.

(f) The number of children attending private functions or parties at the Club must be limited and remain within the room booked and Club toilet facilities. The Member booking the private party will be responsible for the behaviour of the "party" children and adult guests. Staff may insist on the removal of a misbehaving child from the Club premises.

(g) Juniors under 12 should use the changing facilities provided in the Junior Club. They may only use the Club Dressing Rooms if accompanied by an adult Member. Children over 8 years of age should only use the changing room for their respective gender.

(h) Children 12 years or older using the Club facilities, including courts, are subject to the same rules, disciplines and behaviour expectations as adult Members.

18. Under 12 members

(a) A parent, grandparent or guardian of an under 12 Member may, on the child's behalf and using the child's name, book any outdoor Lawn Tennis court other than a grass court in the same manner as a Full Member.

(b) The parent, grandparent or guardian may book, on behalf of the child and using the child's name, in the usual way any of the four outdoor courts designated for use as Junior Club courts, for which there will be no charge when used by an Under 12 and Under 22 category Member.

(c) A parent, grandparent or guardian may, on behalf of a child and using a child's name, book a squash court. Normal court booking regulations and prices will apply.

(d) A parent, grandparent or guardian may, on behalf of a child, request a lesson with a Real Tennis professional and may book a court, for which normal court fees will apply.

(e) Nothing in this Bye-Law shall prevent a parent, grandparent or guardian booking and/or using any court in the usual way and playing with a child under 12 provided that person properly supervises and is responsible for the child.

(f) Lawn Tennis coaches may at the request of a parent, grandparent or guardian give lessons to Under 12s in the same way as for all other Club members.

19. Babies

A Member bringing a baby into the Club premises must be responsible for its well-being and ensure that it does not disturb other members. The Member must be responsible for the safe and hygienic disposal of nappies (and not leave it to staff). Breast-feeding should, wherever possible, take place discreetly in the Ladies Dressing Room. Baby carriages should be placed at the side of the Club buildings and not on the frontages or passageways.

20. The Junior Club

The Junior Club has been specially created and designed for our young Members. Children aged 6-12 years are expected to use the Junior Club television facility particularly on Sundays. Adults using Junior courts when playing with a junior are expected to pay. Parents or legal guardians will be responsible for booking courts for children.

21. Mobile Telephones and lap-tops

Mobile telephones and lap-tops may not be used at any time in the following areas: Pavilion Steps, Restaurant, Café, TV Room, Bars, court areas indoors and outdoors, including the galleries.

Members should respect the privacy and sensitivities of other members and Club staff when using mobile phones where permitted.

Mobile telephones and lap-tops should also not be used on the Club premises for regular or extended business purposes. The Club premises are not for Members' business use.

22. Smoking

Smoking is not permitted at any time in the grounds or in the Clubhouse, with the exception of the designated area of the terrace outside The President's Room and the terrace in front of the Rackets Courts.

23. Lockers

A limited number of lockers are available for hire in the Dressing Rooms on an annual basis. Day lockers are available for daily use; any property left overnight will be removed and a fee levied for its return. Application for dressing room lockers should be made to the Security Manager.

24. Credit

Unless a Member has a separate monthly direct debit in force to cover the cost of goods or services purchased in the Club, all items must be paid for at the time of purchase.

25. Breakages

Breakages or damage by a Member or his guest shall be paid for by the Member responsible.

26. Committees

26.1 The Board has established games committees for the sports of Lawn Tennis, Rackets, Real Tennis and Squash. Also a Health and Fitness Committee, a House Committee, a Project Development Committee and a Finance Committee.

26.2 Any member wishing to serve on these committees should write to the Chief Executive proposing himself for membership.

26.3 Appointments to these committees will be by the Board of OCL and will last for a maximum of three years with the possibility of being invited to serve for a maximum of a further three consecutive years only. Members may be asked to serve lesser terms so as to stagger appointments and resignations.

26.4 Subject to ratification or otherwise by the Board, each committee shall appoint its own Chairman.

26.5 The names of the committee members shall be published on the Club notice board.

27. Miscellaneous

27.1 All Members must complete a contact information sheet when requested to do so.

27.2 All complaints as to the everyday running of the Club should be made to the Chief Executive, his deputy or the appropriate manager.

27.3 A summary of the Board's decision following each Board meeting will be posted on the Club notice board provided it is prudent to do so.
